

Junior Financial Analyst

RCI Financial Services, the financial captive of the Alliance brands (Renault Nissan Mitsubishi) is recruiting a Junior Financial Analyst for its Operations - Network Credit department located at RCI headquarters.

Joining the Renault Group means being part of a unique, diversified and innovative automotive alliance.

Reinventing mobility for all, you will challenge conventional wisdom and help build the future.

As a Junior Financial Analyst, your main tasks will be to study and analyze balance sheets and profit and loss accounts to determine the solvency of each dealer. You will also be responsible for monitoring short- and long-term risk indicators, which will be communicated to the dealers. You will be required to travel within the Renault-Nissan network.

Missions :

- Balance sheet and income statement for each concessionaire
- Develop simulations and action plans for investments, mergers, and acquisitions
- Advising dealers on strategic decisions
- Determining credit lines according to dealers' solvency and needs
- Prepare and participate in monthly risk committees within RCI management
- Carry out visits to dealerships
- Establish reporting according to risk indicators
- Be the point of contact for dealership management
- Be co-responsible for the finalization of projects related to Network Credit

Skills:

- Preferably, 1 to 5 years experiences in financial analysis and/or accounting.
- Bilingual in French and Dutch and have a professional level in English.
- Fluent with Microsoft Pack (Excel, Word, PPT).

Profile:

Degree in economics/business management/accounting (Bachelor or Master).

Reactive by nature, you are rigorous, orderly and attentive to information from manufacturers and dealers.